

The Constitution.ROUNDABOUT IN GEORGIA.

The Augusta watermelon will soon be ripe.

The Georgia game law does not apply to ripe spring chickens.

The colored revivals are developing trees all over the state.

This is hardly the season for the mammoth turnip.

Bill Arp raises his own bread, but refuses to tell the brand of the yeast he uses.

The LaGrange Reporter pays a very high compliment to Mr. Robert McCrory, the Atlanta tenor.

The indications are that Judge Dan Pittman will be among the candidates for congress in this district.

The Darien State is still opposed to "luxurious statehood." This is in the direct line of reform.

The Georgia papers are calling for more fruit. This sort of thing will be an epidemic after awhile.

A LaGrange county man killed a negro the other day while endeavoring to claim a yellow-jacket's nest.

The man who advertised for a clerk, a book-keeper & a traveling salesman generally has all the correspondence he wants.

It is a curious botanical fact that plums, cucumbers and watermelons come in simultaneously with the Georgia foliage.

The people of southern and south-west Georgia are bent on having all the fairs that can be raked together this fall, and they will be good ones, too.

The Gainesville editors are still giving each other a tremendous racket. Will the other colonels stand by and allow this?

The stern manner in which Mr. Stephen alludes to Gregg Wright as a colonel will lead the public to believe that there is some ground for the accusation.

It is better to be a farmer than a politician. The latter is compelled to buy his own tea, while the former, if he will follow the advice of Col. LeDuc can raise it.

Will sweet William Arp, who seems to be a practical agriculturist, kindly inform eight thousand people who read THE CONSTITUTION daily, why the early worm never attacks the Georgia goober?

Mr. Wm. H. Hendley, of Hawkinsville, is dead.

About 60,000 pounds of wool in the Atlanta market this season.

St. John's church, in Augusta, will be remodeled and refitted.

The "Tourist social club" has been organized in Macon.

There is a feeling in favor of a no fence law in Wilkes county.

Candidates for the county offices are beginning to crop out in Polk county.

Telegraph business at the Griffin office is, I think, than ever known to be.

The storm of Sunday did considerable damage in some sections of Oglethorpe county.

At 12 m. June 3, 1878 at her home, Mrs. F. Masters, wife of Mr. H. F. Masters, and daughter of J. W. and E. M. M. Masters.

Mr. Wm. L. Roberts, of Dawson, raised 39 head of cabbage on one acre, and 23 ears of corn on one stalk, so says the Dawson Journal.

DOWN IN DIXIE.

San Antonio is to have a $7,500 public school house.

At San Antonio $18,000 was paid in one day for 80,000 pounds of wool.

There were 110 deaths in Memphis during the month of May.

The Old Field we were never more prosperous in Alabama than at present.

The Mississippi educational association holds its annual meeting on the 28th of June, at Oxford.

About eight hundred persons signed the Murphy pledge in Montgomery.

Nearly all of the county conventions, so far held in North Carolina, have pronounced for Governor Vance for next United States senator.

A large number of merchants of Nashville have signed an agreement to close their stores during the summer months or until September 1st, at half past 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Education is moving on rapidly in Tennessee. The state has nearly 700 public schools in operation than it had last year. Similar reports came from all parts of the south.

The Texas Journal of Commerce is very sanguine that Galveston will become one of the great wheat markets of the continent.

Law Saturday in Talladega Mr. James Martin and Dr. E. B. Freeman, cause of the difficulty not known, we are informed that the doctor is doing well and will be home in a week.

The large strawberry farm in the world is probably that of John R. Young, Jr., about two miles from Norfolk, Va. It comprises about 250 acres, and it is expected that the product will be much larger this season.

From present indications we are satisfied that the present year will be remembered by the farmers in the south as one of the most disastrous for years.

The third quadrennial conference of the Colored M. E. church of America will meet in Jackson, Tenn., on the 1st day of August. The general conference was organized in Jackson in 1870. It has 100,000 members, 585 parishes, and 900 local preachers, and 20,000 Sunday-school pupils.

A new law, which will be formalized in Montgomery on the 4th of November next, is attracting attention in all parts of the country. It will be the most numerously attended fair ever given in Alabama, and its success is already placed beyond doubt, even at this early date.

There are several national cemeteries in the state dead, besides 200 local and post cemeteries. The largest of these are at Arlington, Va., the former homestead of General Robert E. Lee, with 15,547 graves; Fredericksburg, Va., with 15,300 graves; Salisbury, N. C., with 12,112 graves; Andersonville, Ga., 13,705 graves; New Orleans, La., 12,230 graves; Vicksburg, Miss., 17,012 graves; Chattanooga, Tenn., 12,864 graves; Nashville, Tenn., 16,229 graves; Memphis, Tenn., 13,958 graves; Jefferson Bar- racks, Mo., 8,601 graves. The national cemetery, near Richmond, Va., has 6,276 graves, of which less than 5,450 are known dead, mostly of prisoners. The cemeteries are generally reported in good condition, well sodded and planted with ornamental trees.

Babies cry because they suffer; and the most reliable remedy for the relief of their discomfort is Dr. B. D. Syrup. 25 cents per bottle.

QUERY: "Why will men smoke com- mon tobacco, when they can buy Marburg Dr. "Sooal of North Carolina," at the same price?"

Dry Goods, Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloths, Etc.

JOHN RYANwill offer on Monday!

And the following days, the entire stock of

Dry Goods, Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloths,LAMBREQUINS,*Silks, Dress Goods,

And everything in his Immense Warerooms at Great Sacrifice from Former Prices.

This is done simply to reduce stock and prepare for the fall season. Every one knows that John Ryan has purchased very largely from the late Auction Importers' Sales, and as he thinks he has made a little money on his sales since that time he can now sell the balance at and thereby benefit his Customers, at the same time he will clear out his entire stock and hopes to benefit himself.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE,

The stock of Carpets is very large and will favorably compare with anything in America. English Tapestry Carpets, Fine Body Brussels, Three-Ply Ingrains, Hemp, Lemoleuan, American and English Oil Cloths, Fresh Canton Matting, Stair Rods, Mats, &c.

Curtain Laces 250 pieces 12c to 75c.

In Dress Goods the finest selection to be found in any house this side of New York.

20 cases English Snow Flake 64c, 8c, 10c, and 12c.

15 cases Bourette Cloth Suiting 15 cents and 20 cents.

14 cases English Matelasse 20c and 25c per yard, reduced from 30 and 37c.

10 cases Black Tamis Cloth, 50c, 65c, 75c, and $1.00, other houses price the same goods 1.00 to $1.50, according as they find their customer.

The gradual sweeping away of those houses whose only Capital was Credit, has enabled men of Capital and Means to place before their customers Bargains really not to be expected.

400 PIECES OF CALICO, FAST COLORS, AT 4 CENTS

Ladies', Misses', Boys', Youths and Gentlemen's HATS will be sold at retail at wholesale prices, as John Ryan purchases hats entirely by the case. No other house can possibly compare in prices with him.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's BOOTS AND SHOES, my exclusive styles and surpassing prices in this department are attracting the patronage of ladies to such an extent as to crowd this department to its utmost capacity. A full assortment of Miles & Son, celebrated manufacturers, just received; also, Smaltz, Monroe & Co., Philadelphia.

No imperfect Shoes for sale.

Large lots of Grenadines with Silk Stripes, commencing at 6c, up to the finest imported.

John Ryan will also offer during the week, as soon as received, several cases purchased by his New York resident buyer at the great sale of Wright, Bliss and Fabian, Honey Comb Quilts, Crochet Quilts, Marseilles Quilts, White Pique, Sheetings, Shirtings, Victoria Lawn and several other goods, the invoice not yet received, owing to the largeness of the sale and quantity sold.

John Ryan has also received intelligence that his New York Buyer has purchased the entire stock of a New York Suit manufacturer at an enormous sacrifice. Those Suits he is informed are stylish and well made and the quantity being very large, he will offer them at a very small margin of profit. Prices will be from $2 to $12. Those parties desiring samples will please order at once as the prices will sell the goods readily.

John Ryan will say in conclusion that he has the most complete stock of Dry Goods, Carpets, Oil Cloth, Lace Goods, Lambrequins, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Trunks, Notions, and an endless variety of all other goods in his line and thinks that no one, in justice to himself, purchasing goods in this market, can afford to buy goods in other houses before inspecting his stock and knowing his prices, though they may importune you, as they have done before, with tears in their eyes, to call back and tell Ryan's Prices and then they will sell at the same prices.

10 Pieces Black Camel's Hair Cloth, a beautiful texture, ordered by John Ryan from Lyons, in France, by Cable dispatch, just received, 75c, $1.00 and $1.25. This article is sold in New York, owing to its scarcity, at $1.50 to $2.00.

Special Notice.

We control the sale of the "Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention" held in this state in 1877, compiled and published by the Atlanta Constitution publishing company. It contains the debates stenographically reported in full on all the important questions before said convention, and the votes on all questions decided, and is indispensable to all the lawyers and business men.

The book is over 500 pages octavo size, and will be mailed postpaid to any address on receipt of one dollar. Only a limited number of copies now for sale of this valuable book, and those who want it will have but a short time to supply themselves.

HON. W. H. WILKINS, Mother.

Don't fail to procure Mrs. Wilkins' SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teeth in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

1867-1878.

The SOOTHING SYRUP is the best remedy for all diseases of teeth in children.

EDUCATION is moving on rapidly in Tennessee. The state has nearly 700 public schools in operation than it had last year. Similar reports came from all parts of the south.

The Texas Journal of Commerce is very sanguine that Galveston will become one of the great wheat markets of the continent.

Law Saturday in Talladega Mr. James Martin and Dr. E. B. Freeman, cause of the difficulty not known, we are informed that the doctor is doing well and will be home in a week.

SIDEWALK NOTES.

—The bass ball fever continues.

—A'more as chilly as October yesterday morning.

—The hotels were crowded yesterday with visitors.

—The firemen expect a big time on the Fourth.

—Watermelons will now begin to come in rapidly.

—Telephones are used to great advantage in Atlanta.

—The post roads for a mild and pleasant summer.

—Third parties are the coming events in society circles.

—The Pomerological society will have an interesting meeting to-day.

—Transient travel at all the hotels is better than ever.

—The fever for raising sheep seems to have subsided in the past.

—The examinations at our free school will take place very soon.

—Next week's races will be attractive to all.

—Several hundred ladies' courses have been held in our churchs.

—Everybody who can afford it has a fountain. They greatly beautify the city.

—Union passenger depot presents a lively appearance each day as the trains come in and out.

—There are some marksmen in the Atlanta Rifles' association who will do well in our contests.

—We regret to learn that Professor Schenck confined to his room with an attack of rheumatism.

—The Rho Alpha club had a delightful meeting at the residence of Mr. Robert Clark in Edwardsburg.

—The trotting races on the 18th and 19th will attract a large crowd to our city from the country around.

—Mr. Robert at the city hall park says that the building crew of red-head wood peckers have largely disappeared.

—The Atlanta Y. M. C. A. will be well represented at the state convention which meets in Gainesville on the 24th.

—It Atlanta has any scavenger carts on the streets, we hope to see them.

—The Buttermilk Rangers, it is said, will have a picnic in a few days. They will go out to the country.

—Moses Bunting and his hand accompanied the excursion to Lorraine and discovered sweet music free of charge.

—Duels on paper are more comfortable entertainments than duels in a barrel.
